WALTER O. BRIGGS, JR.

President, Detroit Baseball Company

THE TIGERS OF 1952

Detroit will inaugurate the baseball season of 1952 with three major changes in its executive staff and an altered setup in its minor league chain.

The death of Walter O. Briggs, sole owner of the club, at his Miami Beach winter residence, January 17, brought about the most important change. To succeed him as president, a position which he held since 1935, Walter O. Briggs, Jr., who had been vice president, was chosen by the board of directors. Spike Briggs is also executive vice president and treasurer of the Briggs Manufacturing Company, as well as the president of the recently acquired Buffalo Baseball Club. He was born in Detroit, January 20, 1912, and is a graduate of Georgetown University.

Charles Leonard Gehringer, for a score of years a prime favorite with Tiger fans, whose skill at second base won him a place in Baseball's Hall of Fame, became the directing head of the club's activities, with the title of vice president, at the close of the 1951 season.

As director of the club's farm chain, another outstanding baseball figure was chosen in the person of Herold D. Ruel, former star backstop, coach, manager, member of the staff of the Commissioner of Baseball and until he joined the Detroit organization, director of the Cleveland Indians' minor league system.

Sale of the Toledo, American Association franchise and the purchase of the Buffalo, International League club are the major changes in the farm setup. Richmond, in the Ohio-Indiana league was also dropped while Wausau of the Wisconsin State league, with which the Tigers had a working agreement in 1951, was bought outright. This gives the parent organization seven farm clubs of which four are Tiger property.

Although Charley Gehringer and his aides have been seeking to strengthen the 1952 club by trade or purchase, for several months, the roster of players reporting for practice at Lakeland, Florida, contains only a handful of names which were not on the 1951 list. Two of the newcomers, Ralph Atkins and Alex Garbowski, are infielders, while Russ Sullivan and John Phillips are outfielders. Other rookies who are candidates for positions on the parent club are Richard Marlowe, Wayne McLeland, and Ernie Funk. All three are right-handed pitchers.

Atkins, first baseman, is a capable fielder who hit .278 with Little Rock and .260 with the Toledo Club, last season. A former Red Sox farm hand, with extra-base power, he was an important factor in the championship drive of the Little Rock, Southern Association club, last season.

Garbowski, drafted from the Seattle club, in December, is a fine-fielding shortstop who in his first year of pro ball in the Middle-Atlantic league in 1947, hit for an average of .396. With Seattle, last year, his mark was only .222, but the need for increased defensive strength in the infield will result in his being given every opportunity to make the Tiger lineup.

Should the Tigers find it necessary to part with one of the 1951 outfielders, in order to consummate a trade, Russell Sullivan, who hit .341 with Toledo, last season, before coming up to the Tigers for a brief spell in September, is a likely outfield prospect. With the Triple A farm club, he accumulated 88 R.B.I.'s; 11 homeruns; 8 triples and 23 doubles. In a play-off game for the Flint club, in 1951, he hit three homeruns and in his first season of pro baseball, he had 35 homeruns with the Danville, Carolina league club.

John M. "Bubba" Phillips, former Mississippi Southern College football star, possesses unusual speed, a quality much lacking in recent Tiger clubs. This might aid his ascent to the parent club.

Wayne McLeland was with the Tigers for a while last season but saw little service. At Toledo, he was the hard luck pitcher on the 1951 staff, losing several games by a single run. He seems likely to be with the club when the season opens.

Richard Marlowe, a former Davidson College star, has been in the Detroit Minor League system for the last four years. Ernie Funk, who starred as a pitcher for the Flint, Central league farm club in '49 and '50, was out of the lineup at Williamsport and Toledo for a good part of the season because of injuries.

Barring trades or purchases between now and April 15, it is likely that the Tiger lineup on opening day will greatly resemble that of 1951. Manager Rolfe, however, believes the return of Arthur Houtteman. who was given a medical discharge from the army, and a continuation of Virgil Truck's performance in the late weeks of last season, will add considerable strength to the club.

Van Patrick, veteran sports broadcaster, will be the announcer on both the AM and TV broadcasts of Tiger games. Thirty-five games will be televised.
